

- Feet shoulder width apart,
- Toes on the line
- Swing your arms a bit and get your body ready for take off
- Lean forward slightly, and bend your knees to a bit above parallel
- Explode up and out with your legs and swing your arms forward
- Always try to land on your feet or fall forward (measurement is the part of the body landing closest to the take-off line).

